

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY,
TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese literature, has been continued in its Twelfth Volume. The Review discusses topics which are of interest to the minds of students of the "Far East" and about which every intelligent person concerned with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive Notes of Travel by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and accurate record of literature on China, etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to "Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office."

The Notes and Queries are still continuing from an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Societies, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretschneider, Giles, and Hanks, Prof. Legge, and Messrs. Ballou, Walters, Stuart, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson, Fisher, Koyachi, Parker, Jaffar, Giles, and Pilon—all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $5.00 per annum, postage included—payable in advance. Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to. Address, "Manager, China Mail Office."

QUOTATIONS OF THE PRESS.

"All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review."—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).

"The China Review" has an excellent table of contents."—Chinese Recorder.

"The Publications of the Review are of interest to students in the Far East and the present issue will be found to contain many interesting articles, with preceding numbers."—Chinese Recorder.

"This number contains several articles of interest and value."—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).
